IMPARTIALITY POLICY

At OSPL, we are dedicated to conducting audit activities with the utmost impartiality, adhering to the highest standards of integrity and objectivity. The commitment of our top management to impartiality is a cornerstone of our organizational values. To demonstrate this commitment, OSPL has documented a comprehensive policy aimed at safeguarding impartiality throughout our audit processes.

This policy, developed by OSPL, is integral to our operations. We ensure that this commitment to impartiality is communicated and understood at all levels of the organization. Our top management is actively engaged in promoting a culture that values impartiality in every aspect of our work.

OSPL, as the designated entity responsible for overseeing audit activities, is charged with upholding the impartiality of our processes. We emphasize that no commercial, financial, or other external pressures will compromise the objectivity of our audit activities. Our independence from Food Establishments (FEs) is paramount, OSPL refrains from establishing any direct relationships with FEs outside the scope of audit activities, ensuring the integrity of our third-party conformity assessment role.

To reinforce this commitment, OSPL regularly monitors and reviews the effectiveness of its impartiality policy. Any identified risks or issues that may compromise impartiality are promptly addressed, reflecting our dedication to continuous improvement in maintaining the highest standards of impartiality.

We recognize the importance of compliance with industry standards and regulations. Therefore, OSPL ensures that its impartiality policy aligns with relevant standards, and regular reviews are conducted to keep the policy in harmony with evolving requirements.

In the spirit of openness, instances of potential threats to impartiality are reported promptly to the appropriate authorities within our organization. This transparent reporting mechanism
